Notes

---

Person Note

Date of death and Birth shown at U.S. Veterans Gravesites, ca.1775-2006 (MT Pleasant Cemetery, Mt Pleasant, Missionary Baptist Church, Cabot, Arkansas.) is not GGrandpa Silas father of Lon Sylvanus even though the date of birth on the head stone match his since Silas shows up in the 1900, 1910, and 1920 census records and since my mother spoke of "Grandpa Silas" Dad's Grandfather and knew and remembered him and she was not born until 1908 and was not married to my father until Feb. 1924. So he was obviously still alive at that time. Also note that he was orphaned since based upon the 1850 United States Federal Census Great Grandpa Silas (Sylvanus miss transcribed as Syloamy) was living with William and Eleanor (Ellen) Caviness (miss transcribed as Crompt) and Martha Myrick in Chatham Co. NC. [look at the original documents prepared in Sept, 1850 (GGrandpa Silas was born in July, 1846 and turned 4 in 1850.)] He also shows up with this same couple in Prairie County Arkansas in the 1860 census (age 13 now.) His father Sylvanus W. Sr. is buried in the MT. VERNON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH cemetery in Hadley Township, Chatham County, North Carolina. His grave marker shows Silvan Perry and his death as 25 Dec 1846, 5 months after GGrandpa Silas' birth. Russ

Although the documentation I have found (The probate records of Sylvanus Perry from the Oct, 1846 session of the court showing a suit of his executor James Perry, probably the brother of Sylvanus, by his wife Eleanor seeking a portion of the estate for her and "her family" sufficient to support them for a year tho no child is named in the probate records; The 1850 and 1860 census reports for William Caviness showing Eleanor as his wife and having a child named Sylvanus Perry living with them have transcription and/or census taker spelling or understanding errors of the names Sylvanus and Caviness but supports Eleanor as GGpa Silas' mother and that she was previously married to a Perry; The 1850 census also shows a single female with the last name of Myrick, who was probably Eleanor's younger sister, living in the Caviness household; Peter F Perry's will naming James and a son that has been transcribed as Persyllas, or Persilas who can not be found in any other records and is probably either a transcription error or an error in spelling, hearing, or understanding by the person the will was dictated and probably Sylvanus; The family traditions of Peter having a son name Sylvanus; The statements to me by my father that his middle name, Sylvanus, was handed down to him from is father, grandfather, and greatgrandfather;) add up to convincing evidence for GGpa Silas' parents being Sylvanus Perry and Eleanor Myrick but I have not found any documentation that clearly names GreatGrandpa Silas' parents.
